

PERMACULTURE DESIGN COURSE 2008

Sirius Community & Ecovillage - Shutesbury, MA (near Amherst)

- Learn regenerative, whole systems design including: Natural Building • Green Architecture • Renewable Energy • Alternative Currencies • Bioremediation, • Appropriate Technology • Edible Forest Gardening • Alternative Waste Systems • Organic Agriculture • Community Living • Sustainable Land Stewardship

JUNE 28 - JULY 19

- Ecological design process for homes and gardens
- Mapping and natural systems site analysis
- Week-long implementation practicum at local farms and homesteads
- Highly interactive and experiential learning
- Earn 4 UMass transferable credits (Plant and Soil Sciences 398p)
- Permaculture Design Certificate Course

Join us for the 4th Annual Summer Gathering of the Northeastern Permaculture Network,
July 12-13, held during the course!

Teaching Team:

- Jono Neiger, Ecologist, landscape designer, faculty, Conway School of Landscape Design
- Kay Cafasso, Permaculture designer, instructor, gardener and natural builder
- Ethan Roland, Appleseed Permaculture. designer, teacher, researcher and Guests.

For more info and an application

(413) 259-0025
www.LivingRoutes.org

Living Routes partners with UMass Amherst to offer accredited study abroad programs.
Visit our web site for details.